Dear Phil friends:

This season could be described as "Music for the Heart and Soul" and that's exactly the way I feel about it! I will be conducting music that I really love from the joyous Puccini Mass to some great Magnificats to the haunting Baltic music of my youth. I can't wait to work with our singers, bringing my passion to their performances.

As with many arts groups, we are constantly striving to make great music while staying fiscally responsible. It takes the work of many volunteers and the generosity of sponsors, grantors and foundations. We would be most grateful if you would like to assist us financially.

And for you singers lurking out there across the city – come and join us!

Sincerely,

Artistic Director & Conductor
Winnipeg Philharmonic Choir

A Mass Mosaic

Sunday, October 30, 2011 – 3:00 p.m.

Crescent Fort Rouge United Church Wardlaw and Nassau

Special Guests: Lottie Enns-Braun, Organ / PJ Buchan, tenor / Howard Rempel, baritone

The Phil loves big choral works and we know that you do, too! For this concert we have chosen two superb masses for organ and choir, Puccini's Messa di Gloria and Koldaly's Missa Brevis. Rich and melodious, they will fill your soul with joy and longing. The Phil is pleased to be joined by well-known organist Lottie Enns-Braun who will also perform a solo mass by Québec organist and composer Denis Bédard.

Magnificat

Sunday, December 11, 2011 – 3:00 p.m.

Bethel Mennonite Church 465 Stafford Street

Special Guests: Marni Enns, soprano / Kirsten Schellenberg, contralto / string quartet led by Minna Rose Chung

This concert expresses all the joy and glory of the season with four uplifting Magnificats by Vivaldi, Pergolesi, Pärt and Stanford. The second half of the concert will also feature well-known Christmas music on the theme of Mary as well as great sing-along carols. A program for the heart and soul of the season!

From the Baltic to the Northern Lights

Sunday, April 22, 2012 – 3:00 p.m.

Westworth United Church 1750 Grosvenor Avenue

Special Guests: Evgeny Guryev, conductor / Stanley Wold, conductor / Finnish traditional folk musicians / PJ Buchan, tenor

Old, new, funny, macho, magic, tragic, patriotic – choral music is in the blood of the peoples of the Baltic and Scandinavian regions. This concert offers a unique window on this world as Artistic Director Yuri Klaz teams up with two guest conductors who also have expertise in Northern European music: Russian Evgeny Guryev, Petrozavodsk State Conservatory; and Norwegian-American Stanley Wold, Professor of Choral Music, University of Minnesota, Duluth. Repertoire will run the gamut from Sibelius and Grieg to Pärt. For added variety, Finnish musicians Diane Jarvi (Jarvenpa) and Ralph Tuttila from Duluth will perform folk songs and play early folk instruments called the kantele and jouhikko.

SING WITH US

If you are an amateur singer who would like to:

- learn from internationally-renowned conductor, Maestro Yuri Klaz
- perform in professional choral concerts, alongside professional musicians
- sing with the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra at the Centennial Concert Hall

then call Pearl now at 222-3549 to book your choral interview.

VOLUNTEER WITH US

There are many other ways to get involved with our organization. Volunteer at our performances or behind the scenes with fundraising or marketing. Please call Judy at 896-7445 to see how your skills might fit with the Phil.

HOW TO GIVE

As a community-based, volunteer organization, the Winnipeg Philharmonic Choir relies on donations from both corporations and individuals. You can:

- Make a general donation to support the choir's ongoing operations.
- Make a donation to the Winnipeg Philharmonic Choir Endowment Fund, administered through The Winnipeg Foundation, as an investment in the choir's future.
- Make a donation in memory of a loved one. The Phil's In Memoriam Fund celebrates the life of someone special in a tangible way. In recognition of a donation to the Fund, the name of the loved one will be printed in a special insert in the Mass Mosaic concert on October 30, 2011. Money in the Fund is used to help us mount major concerts with orchestra. Donations to the Fund must be received before October 9, 2011 to be included in the insert.

The Phil greatly appreciates your support. Please see the reverse if you would like to make a donation.
